Speakers profile:

Pernille Bundgård

International Market Director at Organic Denmark

Organic Denmark is an NGO and 100% organic food cluster, with 200 Danish organic member companies, representing the almost entire organic food sector in Denmark. Ms. Bundgård has more than thirty years of experience in B2B sales and business development. She has a rich background of working towards building and further developing markets, strategy development, sales and customer relations and has built up a large network both at nationally and abroad.

Suraj Nair

Entrepreneur, Co-founder & General Manager at Biohabit, Copenhagen, Denmark

Mr. Nair has more than ten years of experience in B2B sales and has developed businesses locally and internationally. He is passionate about making organic ingredients from India available to consumers across Europe. Biohabit focuses on promoting and importing organic ingredients such as millets, lentils, basmati rice and spices. A recent success was Biohabit becoming the first importer of organic millets from Uttarakhand to the European Union.
